

Odonto-Stomatologie Tropicale

Tropical Dental Journal

Instructions to authors

Tropical Dental Journal publishes original articles relevant to odonto-stomatology in the tropical world and research in general.

Tropical Dental Journal also presents general information concerning the tropical world and congress.

Manuscripts are accepted for consideration with the understanding that text, figures, photographs and tables have not appeared in any other publication and that the material has been submitted only to this journal.

Preparing and formatting electronic manuscripts

Text file: Submission of manuscripts must be in Microsoft Word (.doc). This applies to both Windows and Macintosh platforms. If you are using any other word processing program, you must save the text file as .rtf.

All original articles should be submitted with a structured abstract (in French and in English), consisting of no more than 250 words and the following four paragraphs:

- Background: Describes the problem being addressed.
- Methods: Describes how the study was performed.
- Results: Describes the primary results.
- Conclusions: Reports what authors have concluded from these results, and notes their clinical implications.

Papers must be written in French or English.

The title page should contain:

- 1) a concise but informative title;
- 2) first name, middle initial, and last name of each author, with the highest academic degree and the current institutional affiliation for each;
- 3) name of the department(s) and institution(s) to which the work should be attributed (please use footnote symbols [in the sequence *, †, ‡, §, k, ¶, #, , etc.] to identify authors and their corresponding institutions);
- 4) disclaimers, if any;
- 5) the name and address (including fax number and e-mail) of the author(s) responsible for correspondence (please indicate whether fax number and e-mail can be published);
- 6) sources of support in the form of grants, equipment, drugs, or other significant sources of support;
- 7) any financial relationships between any author and a commercial firm that may pose a conflict of interest;
- 8) word count and number of figures and tables in the manuscript;
- 9) a short running title of no more than 60 characters, including spaces; and

- 10) a one-sentence summary describing the key finding(s) from the study.

References

References should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they appear in the text.

All references are identified, whether they appear in the text, tables, or legends, by Arabic numbers in superscript.

If you are uncertain about the correct abbreviation for a journal title, please refer to the NLM's comprehensive listing at <ftp://nlmpubs.nlm.nih.gov/online/journals/ljiweb.pdf>.

The use of abstracts as references is strongly discouraged. Manuscripts accepted for publication may be cited. Material submitted, but not yet accepted, should be cited in text as "unpublished observations."

Written and oral personal communications may be referred to in text, but not cited as references. Please provide the date of the communication and indicate whether it was in a written or oral form. In addition, please identify the individual and his/her affiliation. Authors should obtain written permission and confirmation of accuracy from the source of a personal communication. Presented papers, unless they are subsequently published in a proceedings or peer-reviewed journal, may not be cited as references. In addition, Wikipedia.org may not be cited as a reference. For most manuscripts, authors should limit references to materials published in peer-reviewed professional journals. In addition, authors should verify all references against the original documents. References should be typed double-spaced. Examples of references are given below.

Tables

Tables should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numbers in the order of their appearance in the text.

A brief descriptive title should be supplied for each.

Explanations, including abbreviations, should be listed as footnotes, not in the heading. Every column should have a heading. Statistical measures of variations such as standard deviation or standard error of the mean should be included as appropriate in the footnotes.
